READ—the following paper :—

G.O., dated 25th October 1893, No. 2227, Judicial.

Read—the following letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras, dated 10th October 1893, No. 2655 :—

The District Munsif's Court of Chódavaramu in the Vizagapatam district has, since its transfer to that station from Bimlipatam in January 1890, been located in a rented building held on a lease which expires at the end of the current calendar year and the owner demands an increase of the monthly rent from Rs. 10 to 15 from the beginning of the next year.

2. The District Judge reports that no other building suitable for a court-house is available there, and there seems no alternative therefore to paying the increased rate of rent.

3. But the building is very incommodious and ill-adapted to the needs of the Court, and the District Judge is of opinion that the construction of a new building is absolutely necessary.

4. The Court has now been established at Chódavaramu for four years, and the experience gained during that time is sufficient to show that that is the locality where a Court must be permanently retained. The High Court therefore supports the District Judge's recommendation.

5. I am accordingly directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to sanction payment of the higher rate of rent demanded for the building now occupied and to issue orders for the preparation of plans and estimates by the Public Works Department for the construction of a new court-house.

Order—dated 25th October 1893, No. 2227, Judicial.

Payment of the increased rent of Rs. 15 per mensem is sanctioned.

2. The necessary orders for the preparation of plans and estimates for a new court-house will issue in the Public Works Department.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT

Read the following paper:—

From the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras dated 10th October 1893, No. 2655.

The District Munsif's Court of Chodavaram
in the Vizagapatam District has, since its transfer to that station from Ramlipatam in January 1890,
been located in a rented building held on a lease
which expires at the end of the current calendar year and the owner demands an increase of the monthly rent from Rs 10 to 15 from the beginning of the next year.

2. The District Judge reports that no other building suitable for a Court-house is available there and there seems no alternative therefore to paying the increased rate of rent.

3. But the building is very inconvenient and ill adapted to the needs of the Court and the District Judge is of opinion that the construction of a new building is absolutely necessary.

4. The Court has now been established at Chodavaram for

for four years and the experience gained during that time is sufficient to show that that is the locality where a Court must be permanently retained. The High Court is therefore supports the District Judge's recommendation.

5. I am accordingly directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to sanction payment of the higher rate of rent demanded for the building now occupied, and to issue orders for the preparation of plans and estimates by the Public Works Department for the construction of a new Court house.

Order of 25th October 1893, No. 2227.

Payment of the increased rent of Rs 15/- per month is sanctioned.

2. The necessary orders for the preparation of plans and estimates for a new Court house will issue in the Public Works Department.
