Military Works.

READ—the following paper :—

From G. E. MANSON, Esq., Executive Engineer, Salem Division, to the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, dated 3rd November 1893, No. 491 S.E.

With reference to G.O., No. 2511 W., dated 3rd October 1893, bearing your endorsement No. 342 S.L., dated 13th October 1893, I have the honour to report that I had already had a plan and valuation statement of Mr. Lovett's house, Jalarpet, prepared, and, after inspection of the property, copies were sent to the Collector with a request that he would take the necessary steps for the purchase of the property.

2. This morning I have received letter No. 1192 B., dated 31st October 1893, from the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Bangalore division, a copy of which, with its enclosure, is herewith sent, calling for a plan and preliminary report of a Mrs. Liptrot's house, Jalarpet, which is said to be more commodious and convenient, with a view to its purchase instead of Mr. Lovett's house.

3. I have therefore now written to Collector requesting him to take no further steps in the matter of the purchase of latter property pending further notice and have given instructions for the preparation of a plan of Mrs. Liptrot's house. This property will be inspected as soon as the plan is made, and plan and report be sent to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General as now called for.

4. Under these circumstances, I presume that it is not now necessary for me to prepare the plan and valuation statement with estimate of cost of alterations of Mr. Lovett's house called for in G.O., No. 2511 W., dated 3rd October 1893.

ENCLOSURES.

From Major J. N. TAYLOR, Officiating Commandant, Madras Railway Volunteers, to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Bangalore Division, dated Madras, 24th October 1893, No. 681/123.

I have the honour, in continuation of my minute No. 586/123 d., dated 18th September 1893, on your No. 3536 B., dated 16th idem, to enclose a further communication from Mrs. Liptrot regarding the price she is willing to take for her house at Jalarpet.

2. This house is much larger and more convenient than Mr. Lovett's, and I have the honour to request that steps may be taken for its early acquisition.

From Mrs. E. LIPROT, to the Commandant, Madras Railway Volunteers, dated Jalarpet, 23rd October 1893.

In continuation of my previous letter regarding the sale of my house, I beg to inform you I am now willing to dispose of it for Rs. 2,500 as I am about leaving Jalarpet, and would thank you to let me know at an early date if you require it.

From the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Bangalore Division, to the Executive Engineer, Salem Division (through the Executive Engineer, Military Works, Bangalore), dated 31st October 1893, No. 1192 B.

Forwarded for information with reference to your letter No. 836 M., dated 26th August 1893.

2. Please be so good as to furnish this office at an early date with a plan and a preliminary report regarding the house of Mrs. Liptrot herein referred to with a view to a reference being made to the Quartermaster-General, Ootacamund, for the purchase of the house instead of Mr. Lovett's should your report on it be favorable.

Return requested.
