Rushikulya Division Office Dofam

No. 463 Camp Dofam

Dated $\frac{22}{24}$ May 1893.

From, J. F. Somers Esq.
Executive Engineer
Rushikulya Division.

To,
The Superintending Engineer
First Circle.

Sir,

Referring to your endorsement No. 145 G. N. of 5.5.93, on Examiner's No. 1480 C of 1.5.93, requesting me to explain the reasons for retaining the Services of temporary clerks, when the Subordinates under whom they had been serving, were not on actual duty, I have the honor to explain as follows.

(1) P. M. Swaminatha Iyer.

During his absence on leave, this section was under the charge of Overseer S. A. Swaminatha Iyer, in addition to his other duties, and

and the establishment allotted to P. Dr. Swami-natha Iyer was given him to cope with the additional work entrusted to him, until Overseer Mr. Sadduddien Sahib joined the Division. This was absolutely necessary.

(2) K. Pravatthakshara Iyer and Ramaswami
Iyer

As the Sub Engineer in charge Russell-Konda Reservoir Works was unable to manage the work without a subordinate, it was proposed to place a temporary Overseer ^{under him} Ramaswami Iyer not having joined the Division, it was found necessary to provide the Sub Engineer with an additional clerk to assist him in preparing the bills &c.

The temporary clerk allotted to him was therefore attached to the Sub Engineer's office till the arrival of Overseer M. C. R. Sundaram Pillai.

(3) Sub Overseer

When the Sub-overseer was on leave, his section was under my immediate charge as Russell's Sub Divisional officer and the Sub

Sub-overseer's clerk was therefore attached to his office for preparing the bills &c of that Section. 1778

The Sub-overseer was given leave after very good and heavy work. I found it difficult to carry on the work of the Section in addition to my other duties. If the Clerk had not been there, I should not have attempted it.

2. In this connection, I beg to point out that the services of overseer's clerks and lascars absolutely cannot be dispensed with when the subordinates are not on actual duty, as their services are imperatively needed to perform the work of those sections.

3. It is very difficult to procure men for temporary posts and it is therefore advisable to obtain general sanction of Government authorizing the Examiner to admit the salaries of Overseer's clerks and lascars when the subordinates under whom they are serving are absent on leave or otherwise on a on the explanation of Executive Engineer.

I have the honor to
