Circular No. XX,
Public Works, dated

1882.

By order,

C. Mulwal

Under Secretary to the Government of India.

Nos. 13—700-709-Pub., dated Simla, the 20th May 1893.

From—C. J. LYALL, ESQ., C.I.E., Secretary to the Govt. of India, Home Dept., To—All Local Governments and Administrations.

AN instance has recently occurred in which a Notification having the force of law and affecting the outside public was issued without the previous publication required by the Resolution of the Home Department No. 49-1791—1807, dated the 8th November 1882. The circumstances under which this Notification was issued were such as to lead the Government of India to suppose that the Resolution of 1882 must have been lost sight of at the time. I am accordingly directed to invite attention to the instructions laid down in that Resolution with a view to their observance in future.

2. The Resolution, it will be observed, prescribes that previous publication should be the ordinary procedure in the case of rules, regulations and notifications having the force of law and affecting the outside public, and also in the case of certain executive orders of a similar nature; but that such publication may be dispensed with in exceptional cases at the discretion of the authority issuing the rules or orders. It will be for Local Governments and Administrations to decide, in accordance with these instructions, in what classes of rules, notifications or orders it is inexpedient or impracticable or unnecessary to publish the draft for general information before final issue; but the general rule should not be departed from without good reason. In the case of rules or orders requiring the sanction of the Government of India in which previous publication may have been dispenssed with, the reasons for non-publication should be fully explained when the draft is submitted for sanction.
