Madras, 13th July 1893.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1434

To

W.

A. Theagarajier, one of the Accountants transferred to the Assam-Bengal Railway Company, was relieved of his duties in this Presidency on the afternoon of the 22nd. November 1892. He reached Calcutta on the 10th. December 1892 and having met with a serious accident on the following day, had to obtain leave on medical certificate from 11th. December 1892 to 6th. February 1893, on which latter date he was transferred to the Ujjein Bhopal Railway.

2. During the period of absence on sick leave, the Accountant practically reverted to his substantive appointment under this Government. The Accountant General P.W.D. has however instructed me to arrange for the charge of the Accountant's leave allowances amounting to Rs.94-8-4, to the grant for "miscellaneous Railway Expenditure" subject to the sanction of the Government of India which, I would beg, may be obtained and communicated to me on an early date.
