READ—the following paper:—

From M.R.Ry. R. GOPALA IYER, Avargal, Assistant Engineer, in charge of Negapatam division, to the Superintending Engineer, V Circle, dated 26th April 1894, No. 333 S.E.

[Reference.—Your No. 308 N.G., dated 24th June 1893, regarding the old Sub-divisional office building at Mannárgudi.]

I beg to report that the Municipal Council, Mannárgudi, mean purchasing the old Sub-divisional office building for a travellers' bungalow, provided the cost does not exceed Rs. 700. The Collector, in communicating the above, remarks that, "if the sum offered is deemed inadequate, the sale might be subject to the condition that the building should be used as a public bungalow and that Government should have the right of repurchase for the same figure plus the market value of any permanent improvements."

2. The District Surgeon has asked the building for use as Police hospital.
3. No others have asked.
4. Cost of the building as borne in books is Rs. 937. Rs. 35 have since been spent on repairs.

No. 133 W.

Submitted to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, with reference to G.O. No. 1565 W. of 12th June 1893.

2. The transfer of the bungalow on the conditions proposed by the Collector is recommended.

2nd May 1894.
