From Alfred Chatterton Esq., Executive Engineer, Gudrinada Division, Hishra, to the Superintending Engineer, 2nd circle dated Gudrinada, 14th March 1893, No. 3332.

With reference to your No. 3011 K.S. dated 7.3.1893, I have the honor to state that I do not consider it advisable to sell the Executive Engineer's bungalow at Gudrinada at the present time.

2. The bungalow and offices are commodious and well suited for the head quarters of a sub-division and though the town is nine miles from the nearest navigable Canal it is situated in the centre of the irrigation from the non-navigable channels, and it is probable that it will always be the head quarters of a sub-division.

3. The sub-division bungalow and offices at Cowtaram are small and inconvenient but the situation is in many ways preferable to that of Gudrinada as the head quarters of a sub-division.
