No 1100 Revenue. the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails dated 28 April 1894. REC/724.

With reference to Judicial G.O No 337 dated 13 February 1894 I have the honor to state that the daily average population of the Kurubakonam
Sub-jail in 1893 was as follows:—

Convicts 3.34 males
0.30 females.

Under trial 12.52 males
0.66 females.

As convicts are alone required to labour, a very small work enclosure would be sufficient, and in my opinion an area 20'x12' would suffice.

Order there no. 28 May 1894. No 2079..

With reference to G.O. dated 26th December 1893. No 1100 the Inspector General 297 No 1 February 1894 of Jails reports that all that is required for the Sub-jail airing yard is a small enclosure measuring about 20'x12'. The best place for such an enclosure would be at the back (east) of the Sub-jail, where, upon the removal of the shed (marked A upon the plan forwarded with the Collector's letter in Board's Proceedings No 1630 Mis. dated 29 March 1894), there will be ample space for the purpose, without removing the Town Sub. Magistrate's Office (B on the plan) which may be required for the

2. The yard should be enclosed by spiked iron railing for which a plan and estimate will be prepared under orders which will issue in the Public Works Department.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Simla, the 30th April 1894, No. 2162-Ex.

At a time when it is necessary in an especial degree to observe all practicable economy in the expenditure of Government, it is advisable to remind both expending and controlling officers of the duty incumbent upon them of scrutinizing, and reducing to the lowest amount consistent with the proper administration of the public service, the expenditure which they have to incur or to control.

2. There are large branches of expenditure, such as those connected with "contingencies," "supplies and services," "travelling allowances," and the like, in which it is necessary for purposes of economy that the expenditure should, from the very beginning of the year, be regulated with the view, not only of keeping within the budget estimates (which is the ordinary obligation of every officer concerned), but of keeping well within them if possible, so as to effect as large a saving as practicable.

3. Moreover, experience shows that in the larger supply departments especially, new demands arise during the year which it may have been impossible to foresee in time for entry on the estimates. In the current year the door must practically be shut against extra grants, and it behoves every administering officer concerned to prepare, by economies enforced from the beginning of the year, to meet these new and unforeseen charges by re-appropriations of his original estimates.

4. The Governor-General in Council considers it desirable also, with reference to the present necessity for strict control of expenditure, to remind all officers that for the incurring of expenditure two conditions must be present independently—

- (1) The expenditure must be within the limits of the originally sanctioned budget estimate, or of some "extra grant" sanctioned by competent authority in addition to the original estimate.
- (2) The expenditure must have been sanctioned, as expenditure, by superior authority, unless it is within the sanctioning powers of the expending officer.

Neither of these two conditions implies the other, and it is the duty of the expending officer to satisfy himself that both are present.

5. Although it is sometimes, in occasional extraordinary circumstances, necessary for an expending officer to disburse money, or to engage to do so, in the absence of one or both of these conditions, he must remember that he is taking upon himself a responsibility for which he has to give a due account, and he is bound at once to report his action for regularization.

Order.—Ordered, that a copy of the above Resolution be communicated to all Departments of the Government of India; to all Local Governments and Administrations; to the Heads of Departments subordinate to the Finance and Commerce
