For the above reasons, I beg that if the rule relating to Precis Writing has commenced to take effect, you would be good enough to move the Govt. in the Educational Dept. to exempt me from the operation of the rule until the results of the next examination in Precis Writing are published.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedt. & humble servant passed Precis Writing prescribed in G.O. of 2.2.94, No: 67 Educational (G.O.

4996 of 22.4.94) as a Compulsory test for posts carrying Rs. 60 and upwards, I beg to state that it would subject me to an unmerited hardship. It is open to doubt whether the rules discussed in the above mentioned G.O. have already come into operation; for the Public Service and Special Test notifications have not appear to have ^{yet} received the final approval of Government. Vide the first and last paras of the said G.O., also the concluding sentence of Clause (2), para 3.

If, however, it be held that that portion of the said G.O. which relates to the Precis Writing test ^{to hope} has come into force, I beg to venture ^{perhaps} that you would be disposed to consider that the peculiar circumstances of my case warrant a relaxation of the rule in my favor until the results of the Precis Writing Examination to be held in in October next are published. When this examination was held in October last, as one possessing a University degree (B.A.), I was under no necessity to appear forth and pass it. Now the Govt. has changed its mind and requires me to pass this test. But until I have had an opportunity to pass it, I humbly submit that it cannot be the intention of Govt. to debar me from ^{even} acting promotions in the meanwhile; for in ordering the immediate application of the rule requiring a pass in Precis Writing, the Govt. has justified the order on the ground that "no hardship is involved ^{there} in such application. It is thus clear that where, as in my case, hardship is caused, the Govt. would be disposed to suspend the operation of the rule until at least a single opportunity has been given to the persons concerned to pass the requisite test for

Sir

I beg to Submit for your favorable Consideration my claims for promotion in the arrangements to be made vice Abdul Aziz Sahib who has been granted furlough for 3 months with effect from this date. By going on furlough, Abdul Aziz reverts from his acting appointment of Rs. 90 to his permanent place of Rs. 85, and Ghulam Kadir Sahib, his immediate junior, will succeed to the acting appointment of Rs. 90. I come next in point of Seniority and as such, become eligible to act for Abdul Aziz on Rs. 85. But should I be passed over because I have not passed
