30TH MAY 1894, No. 1300, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From L. M. THORNTON, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 9th May 1894, No. 847—5-Pub.

With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from the Military Department to the address of the Adjutant-General in India, desiring the issue of instructions in order to prevent officers who may have

No. 1080-B., dated the 17th April 1894. Government transport animals in regimental charge or on hire from allowing them to be used in religious processions, I am directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the attention of Civil officers may be drawn to the matter, with a view to a similar rule being observed in the case of elephants of which they may have the use.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India, dated Simla, the 17th April 1894, No. 1080-B.

Under the regulations quoted in the margin, Army transport animals may be lent for State and private purposes to Civil and Military officers. The Government of India consider it undesirable that these animals should be used for religious processions, and I am accordingly desired to ask that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief may be moved to issue such instructions as he may consider necessary, with a view to prevent officers who may have Government animals either in regimental charge or on hire from allowing them to be used for such a purpose. The Commissary-General-in-Chief will be requested to issue similar instructions to officers of the Commissariat Transport Department regarding animals in charge of that department.

ORDER—dated 30th May 1894, No. 1300, Judicial.

The foregoing letter from the Government of India will be communicated to the Military, Revenue and Public Works Departments, the Agents in Ganjam, Vizagapatam and Gódvári, and the Inspector-General of Police for information and guidance.
