

I relieve it from despair.

Having regard to his fellow's peculiar Misfortune G. S. Rama Aiyar has no objection to exchange places with V. Copala Aiyar if such an Arrangement is possible.
Under such Circumstances we request that you would be kind enough to grant us our request by sending G. S. Rama Aiyar to Trichinopoly
& the other to Tanjore & thus afford Some Consolation to V. Copala Aiyar in his desolate State.

We beg to remain

The Assistant Sanitary Engineer in charge of Water Supply Schemes Tanjore & Trichy.

Sir, we have been attached to the water supply Schemes Tanjore & Trichy respectively & have now joined our Stations. One of us by name V. Copala Aiyar has been peculiarly unfortunate in having lost within a space of six months first his wife & then his only brother who was the guardian of his whole family. Owing to his recent bereavement, his family affairs have fallen in an utter confusion, which, in the existing state may tell upon the continuity of his practical course & thus mar to no small extent his future prospects. But considering the fact that his native place is nearer to Tanjore than to Trichy, he would be better able to undergo the training without any break & also have an occasional eye on his family.
