READ—the following papers:—

From the President, District Board, Górávari, dated 3rd December 1893, No. 251.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting the Cocanada Taluk Board President's letter, No. 216, dated 30th November 1893, and requesting to sanction the pensionary contribution proposed to be sanctioned.

From the Accountant-General, dated 16th March 1894, No. I.A.E.-320—C.

ABSTRACT.—Returning endorsement, No. 897, dated 19th December 1893, with the remark that the period N. Rajanna was employed as a taluk board surveyor may be considered as non-qualifying service.

From the Accountant-General, dated 21st May 1894, No. I.A.E.—44-C.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding letter from the President, Taluk Board, Cocanada, explaining from what funds the pay of N. Rajanna was met.

ORDER—dated 3rd July 1894, No. 515, Financial.

The pound gumastah ought not to have been transferred to local fund service without the previous sanction of Government.

2. Payment of contribution with retrospective effect is inadmissible under the G.O., dated 9th December 1890, No. 3164 L. orders of the Government of India contained in Home Department letter of the 6th November 1890, No. 360, an extract from which is subjoined for the information and guidance of all concerned:—

"I am to say . . . that the action of the Madras Government in sanctioning —'s transfer with retrospective effect from — was irregular, as the effect of these orders was to enable him to evade the operation of standing rules. . . . I am to explain that the rates of contribution laid down in the Civil Service Regulations have not been fixed arbitrarily and that the payment of arrears of contribution without interest is far from being a fair equivalent for payments made as they fall due, seeing that by paying in arrears an officer escapes all risk of loss through death or dismissal from the service."

3. In the present case the period of local fund service can only be treated as an interruption of duty not entailing forfeiture of past service under Exception (e) to Article 463 of the Civil Service Regulations.
