Establishment.

READ—the following paper:—

From S. G. WOOD, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Calcutta, 10th January 1894, No. 103 G.

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. 2643 W., dated 16th October 1893, in regard to the transfer to "Works" of certain classes of inferior servants hitherto charged to "Establishment" and to the proposed grant to them of compensation retiring gratuities, I am directed to say that the Government of India have decided that the service of those servants up to the date of transfer to "Works" shall qualify for pension, that their subsequent service shall not so qualify, and that they shall be granted the pension or gratuity admissible for the qualifying portion of their service when they actually retire altogether from the service of Government.

ORDER—dated 23rd January 1894, No. 203 W., Public Works.

Communicated to officers of the Public Works Department with reference to the undermentioned orders:—

G.O., No. 840 W., dated 28th March 1893.
" " 1303 W. " 15th May "
" " 1927 W. " 25th July "

2. Under the present ruling of the Government of India, notice of discharge to those men who are transferred from "Establishment" to "Works" will not be necessary, and no claims to compensation retiring gratuities or pensions on their behalf can be entertained until they actually retire altogether from the service of Government.
