17TH AUGUST 1894, Mis. No. 610, EDUCATIONAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 17th August 1894, Mis. No. 610, Educational.

* * * * *

2. The Government has recently had its attention drawn to a case where the head of a department unreasonably refused to grant one of his subordinates leave to enable him to appear for an examination. It is hardly necessary to point out that the refusal of leave to a subordinate who is anxious to appear for an examination may seriously affect the whole of his career and it should be understood that all reasonable applications must be complied with unless compliance is distinctly inconsistent with the public interests.
