Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

India Army Circular, dated 15th July 1894, clause 95.

The following rules for the regulation of the position of honorary commissioned, warrant and non-commissioned officers specially promoted for field service or for distinguished service of an exceptional nature other than in the field, are substituted for those contained in clause 48, India Army Circulars of 1884:—

1. An honorary commissioned, warrant or non-commissioned officer promoted for field service or for distinguished service of an exceptional nature other than in the field, will be supernumerary in his new grade (his name being printed in italics in the Army List) until the occurrence of the vacancy which would have promoted him in ordinary course, when he will be absorbed in that grade. That is, unless again specially selected for promotion, he will not be promoted to the next higher grade until all those who were his seniors in the grade from which he was specially promoted, have risen to that higher grade. For instance, if in the list of conductors A, B, C, D; the latter (D) is promoted for field service to Deputy Assistant Commissary, he will not be promoted to Assistant Commissary till A, B, and C, have become Assistant Commissaries in the ordinary course of promotion.

2. No promotions, acting or permanent, are to be made in room of honorary commissioned, warrant or non-commissioned officers specially promoted for field or other service.
