Endorsement of the Public Works Department of 12th September 1894, No: 1027D on letter from the Consulting Architect, Madras of 7th September 1894, No: 1605.

Order of 18th September 1894, No: 73.

The Public Works Department will be furnished with a copy of G.O dated 4th June 1894, No: 45.

2. With reference to paragraph 3 of the Consulting Architect's letter it is observed that in August 1891 the Secretary to the Madras Missionary Conference informed Government that that body was not prepared to undertake the

To The Public Works Department
" Military Department.

Secretary to Government, Military Department is directed to state that the cemetery in question was taken charge of on the 5th October 1891, by the General Officer Commanding, Madras District, who reports ^{that} there has been one burial only since that date.

Order of 4th June 1894, No: 45.

It is evident that a full-time gardener is not required and one cannot therefore be sanctioned.

2. The Government will have no objection to sanction an extra rupee or two a month if arrangements can be made for one of the gardeners from St. Mary's or St. Andrew's Cemeteries to keep the Non-conformist Cemetery tidy.

3. Paragraph 4 of the Quarter Master General's letter will be referred to the Accountant General for remarks.
