at the latter station being removed to Attapalau.

The delay in replying to the reference from Government is due to the fact that two or three references had to be made by this office on the subject to the Superintendent and to the necessity of forwarding the Superintendent's report to the District Magistrate for his opinion.

From the same office dated 1st September 1894. N^o 5082.

With reference to your Memo. N^o 1206, dated 14 June 1894, J.D. I have the honor to state that no additional buildings at Attapalau will be required for the accommodation of the Police.

Order -

The Inspector General's proposals in the first of the two letters read above are approved, and the Revenue Department will be informed that the Deputy Tahildar's culchary at Cherpal-Cheri can be utilized for a Police as proposed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Pros. of the Judicial Department, dated 17 Sept. 1894 No. 2263, on the following:-

From the Inspector General of Police dated 9 June 1894 No. 5.

With reference to G. O. No. 114 dated 20 January 1894, Judicial Department, I have the honor to report that the Superintendent of Police - Matakar, recommends the removal of the Cuslah station to Attapalam which is almost as centrally situated as Cherpalcheri. Attapalam is more convenient of access by rail than Cherpalcheri and a Cuslah Police station at the Magistrate's Head Quarters is advisable. The District Magistrate is also of opinion that the Cuslah station should be at Attapalam.

2. A Police station will still have to be maintained at Cherpalcheri owing to its central situation in the division and its heavy crime. The Deputy Subordinate Magistrate at this place can therefore be utilized for the Police station as well as for the Post office -

3. The present strength of the Attapalam station viz. 1 Head Constable and 8 constables can be transferred to Cherpalcheri the Police (2 Head Constables and 20 Constables)
