QUARTER MASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Ootacamund,

18th September 1894.

No. 1863 M. W.

From

COLONEL G. SIMPSON,

OFFICIATING QUARTER MASTER GENERAL,

MADRAS ARMY.

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am desired to bring to notice that the old Police Magazine at Cochin, was up to January 1893 utilized by the Company of the Malabar Volunteer Corps located at that station, for the storage of their ammunition. The building in time became very damp and unsafe and the ammunition was consequently removed from it to the Sergeant Instructor's quarters.

2. The local Municipality now request that the ammunition be once again lodged in the Police Magazine, and the Collector of the District has expressed his opinion that this should be done for the safety of the town.

3. To place the building in a thorough state of repair and to render it perfectly secure, it is estimated will cost Rs 280/- but this expenditure the Corps is not in a position to meet.

4. As it is most desirable that the ammunition should should be lodged in a secure place, and as the Civil Authorities have intimated that there is no objection to the transfer of the building, I am desired to solicit that Sanction may be accorded to its being repaired at the expense of the State, and handed over to the Volunteers for occupation rent free, on the understanding that the corps undertakes, in future, to bear all expenditure necessary to keep it in good order.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
