Proposition Statement.

Communicating to Departments of the Secretariat, to Heads of Departments under the Chief Secretary and to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, letter from the Accountant-General stating that a — is necessary in the case of an establishment that is menial, non-pensionable and liable to discharge at any time without compensation.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 24th August 1894, No. 2044, Judicial.

ABSTRACT.—Enquiring of the Accountant-General whether he is of opinion that a proposition statement is necessary when an establishment is menial in character, non-pensionable and liable to discharge at any moment without compensation.

READ—also the following paper:—

From R. MORRIS, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 5th September 1894, No. 2682.

With reference to G.O., No. 2044, dated the 24th August 1894, I have the honour to state that, as the object of a proposition statement is to explain clearly the financial effect of every change in every establishment, whether temporary or permanent, it is necessary also in the case of an establishment that is menial and non-pensionable and liable to discharge at any time without compensation.

ORDER—dated 14th September 1894, No. 2243, Judicial.

Communicated to all Departments of the Secretariat, to all Heads of Departments under the Chief Secretary, and to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court.
