PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICE,
Madras, 3rd October 1894.

From Commander C. W. Hewett, R.I.M.,
Offg PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICER,
MADRAS,

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
MARINE DEPARTMENT,
FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR, In reply to Endorsement, No. 1940, dated 25th September 1894, on Marine Current No. 817, herewith returned, I have the honor to state that, to avoid unnecessary delay in the exhibition of the new light at Calingapatam, it would be as well to have the estimates ready. They can be modified after Mr. Ashpitel's visit to the lighthouses.

2. Whatever may be finally decided on, the person in charge of the light will require better accommodation than is provided for the present class of keepers.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obdt servant
Charles Hewett.
Commander, R.I.M.,
Offg Presy Port Officer.
