From G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, the 18th October 1894, No. 3168 G.

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. 1856 W., dated 25th July last, on the subject of the claims of the officers named on the margin to the exchange compensation allowance, I am directed to say that, under the circumstances stated in his application, the Government of India consider that Mr. J. C. Johnston is not domiciled in India and that he is therefore entitled to the allowance which may be granted to him.

Mr. C. H. T. Norfor, Executive Engineer.
„ J. C. Johnston „ „
„ C. H. D. Marjoribanks, Executive Engineer.
„ J. W. Walsh, Supervisor.
„ J. Calder, Sub-overseer.

2. As regards the claims of Messrs. C. H. T. Norfor, C. H. D. Marjoribanks and J. Calder, I am to say that, under the circumstances stated in their applications, the Government of India consider that the domicile of these officers is Anglo-Indian. They are not therefore entitled to the exchange compensation allowance and their claims thereto are accordingly rejected by the Government of India.

3. With regard to the claim of Mr. J. W. Walsh, I am to say that it is not understood how his father, who is stated to have come out to India in 1860 for the first time, could have been in the service of the Honourable East India Company, which had then ceased to exist. I am to ask, therefore, that Mr. Walsh may be called upon for further information on this point, and be further asked to state in what year his father retired to Europe.

ORDER—dated 30th October 1894, No. 2754 W., Public Works.
