Order—dated 25th January 1894, No. 40, Educational.

The payment of the fifth increment to P. Venkatarangam Nayudu, clerk, V class, 1st grade, of the Negapatam division, is sanctioned with effect from the 10th August 1893.

2. The case of N. Venkatasubbarayudu, clerk, V class, 2nd grade, of the Kistna Eastern division, is similar to that of P. Anantha Pillai noticed in paragraph 2 of G.O., dated the 30th November 1893, and will be disposed of with the reply to that Government Order. Meanwhile his fifth increment which the Executive Engineer appears to have sanctioned with effect from the 1st September 1893 should not be paid.

3. The case of P. Lakshmana Rao, head clerk, Cuddapah division, stands on a somewhat different footing to those of the clerks mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2 above. The principle is however the same and he will be allowed to draw his fifth increment with effect from the 10th August 1893. The Public Works Department will be requested to ascertain and report if other cases exist of men being refused increments on the score of not having passed the Précis Writing Test.

Order—dated 16th May 1893, No. 327, Educational.

A. B. Monteiro will be exempted from the examination rules so far only as regards his present post of clerk on Rs 25—30 in the Sub-Divisional office, South Canara.

2. In this instance, as in many others, the examination rules have not been strictly followed by the local Public Works officers. Monteiro, being an unpassed man, should not have been appointed to any post carrying Rs. 15 or upwards, yet he was promoted to a post carrying Rs. 25—30. This was irregular, but, in order to avoid the examination rules, the local Public Works officers permitted him to draw only Rs. 19 per mensem (being apparently under the impression that the examination rules apply only to posts on Rs. 20 and upwards); this was also irregular. This custom, which seems to prevail in the Public Works Department of giving a portion of the salary only in order to escape the application of the examination rules, is objectionable and must be put a stop to at once.
