2. In reply, I am to point out that in accordance with Section I, paragraph I of Home Department Notification No. 1812, dated the 11th October 1889 (an extract of which is enclosed for convenience of reference) your letter should have been submitted to the Government of India through the Government of Madras. The Government of India are desirous that the procedure laid down in the above quoted Notification shall be adhered to, and I am to request that you will be good enough to submit your Chambers representation to the Government of Madras in the first instance.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated the 8th September 1894, advocating that the Government of India should issue instructions to the Indian delegate, who will attend the International Telegraph Conference to be held at Buda Pesth in 1896, to press for a reduction of the telegraph tariff between India and Europe.
