

No. 4435 $\frac{2}{E}$ d 18-11-94

To W.

If Government is satisfied that the accommodation reserved for the office is sufficient for Government purposes, and that the rent to be charged to the Supervisor for the use of the Upper story bears a fair proportion to the rent of the whole building, no audit objection will be raised.

2. The full rent paid for the house should be charged to Government and the Supervisor's share recovered from his salary as an ordinary deduction and credited to Establishment Contingencies.
