ENCLOSURES.

From Colonel J. A. MILEY, Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Controller of Military Accounts, Eastern Circle, Bengal, dated 27th July 1894, No. 2459 F.

In reply to your letter No. 4382, dated the 26th January 1894, and subsequent correspondence, I am directed to say that the Government of India have decided that when of a salary part is fixed in sterling converted at the official rate of exchange and part is fixed in rupees, exchange compensation allowance shall be paid only on the excess, if any, of the latter part over the former part.

2. The above decision is in supersession of that conveyed in clause (c) of Military Department letter No. 3669 F., dated the 10th November 1893, and will have effect from the 1st July 1894 on salary for that month payable on the 1st August 1894.

From Major-General E. H. H. COLLEN, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay Circle, dated 31st October 1894, No. 3793 F.

In reply to paragraph 6 of your letter No. A.B.-5655 H., dated the 20th September 1894, I am directed to inform you that the Government of India have decided that warrant and non-commissioned officers in receipt of salaries a part of which is fixed in sterling and a part in rupees, and drawing exchange compensation allowance on the excess of the latter part over the former part under the decision communicated in Military Department No. 2459 F., dated the 27th July 1894, are entitled to a continuance of the privilege of making family remittances to England through the public accounts to the extent of the sterling portion of their salaries, subject to the limit and conditions specified in paragraph 517, Instructions for the payment of British troops serving in India.

Order—dated 13th December 1894, No. 3195 W., Public Works.

Communicated to officers of the Public Works Department in continuation o
