South Indian and Nilgiri Volunteer Corps stationed respectively at Nellore and Coimbatore, it having been reported that no suitable public quarters were available at those stations, that buildings at a lower rate of rent could not be obtained, and that the funds of the Corps were not in a position to meet the extra expense of paying the difference between the ordinary compensation of Rs 15 per mensem and the amount of rent actually paid for the buildings occupied by the Serjeant Instructors. The Examiner now brings to notice that Nellore and Coimbatore are not included in the list of Stations given in the remark Column at page lxxx, appendix
