Memorandum.

With reference to G.O., dated 17th November 1894, No. 1000, it would be convenient if the powers of sanction of the various heads of departments as regards contingent and all other charges were brought together into one paper. The Accountant-General probably has the information more readily available than it is in the Secretariat, and he will be requested to state whether he would have much difficulty in compiling such a statement. Heads of departments will, if necessary, be requested to furnish him direct with such particulars as he may require.

To the Accountant-General.

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 3rd December 1894, No. 3655.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 2285, dated the 20th November 1894, I have the honour to state that the rules relating to the powers of sanction of the various heads of departments as regards contingent and all other charges are scattered over various orders passed from time to time, and that it will take some little time to collect them and compile the required statement.

2. I will, however, if Government desires it, arrange for the work being commenced, and, with the view of expediting the preparation of the statement and of making it as complete and correct as possible, I would suggest Government directing all heads of departments to furnish the following particulars at once to me:—

(1) Number and date of authority giving power.
(2) Extent of power.
(3) Items of expenditure.

Order—dated 10th December 1894, No. 1087, Financial.

Communicated to departments of Government and all heads of departments under the Chief Secretary to Government, in view to the information required in paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's letter being furnished to him as early as possible.
