C. Gurusawmy Mudaliar has been employed in a temporary vacancy in the Military Department for 8 months, and has, during this period acquitted himself well. He is a smart copyist, intelligent and painstaking. I have often put him, by way of test, to miscellaneous work in the office, all of which he has done to my satisfaction.

S. C. S. Coelho has studied in the Presidency College for the last three years. He is a very fair English scholar and a well behaved young man. When he first joined the College he held a Government scholarship, but owing to absence on account of sickness he was obliged to resign it.

Endorsement on an application for the post of Head Clerk, Collector's Office, Salem :—

I am glad to be able to give Mr. Coelho a very high character. I can without hesitation recommend him for the appointment he is seeking. I shall be sorry to lose him, but I feel that I cannot with fairness stand in his way. A most painstaking, hardworking, and thoroughly trustworthy clerk Mr. Coelho has always been highly thought of in this Office.

Remarks recorded by Brigadier-General A. Kenney-Herbert at the expiration of his tenure of appointment as Military Secretary to the Government of Madras (30th Oct. 1891).

Mr. Coelho has done good honest work in a steady reliable way ever since I have known him. He can be trusted to carry on the office when his seniors are absent,* and he is a very well conducted servant of Government.

Letter from Brigadier-General H. R. Hope, Military Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated 10th March 1894.

As the Military Department will probably have ceased to exist before my return from furlough I wish to testify to your being painstaking and zealous and that with a little more experience you will become master of the work † you have to do.
