G.O. No. 648W of 6 March 1894 applies to cases in which an attention of rent is involved by the application of the rules in para 22 Chapter II of the Code.
The case of the Lock Bungalows at Bezawada appears to be different more than half of the rent of the original fixed was due to the high value of the compound round the bungalow. It was pointed out that this compound was utilised for the general purposes of the head works & was of no use to the occupant of the bungalow, & the value of all but the land on which the house stood was excluded from the calculation in fixing the rent. Mr Reid having thus having been made to pay rent for land which he did not occupy, it seems only right that he should be repaid the excess amount recovered from him.

G.O. 547W of 28/4/94
I think that his Examiner is right and think his revised rate of rent cannot have retrospective effect.

Mr Reid only raised his question a year after he occupied the bungalow.
