SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

With reference to para 2 of b.o. No. 345 W of the 8th Instant, I have the honor to state that the Executive Engineer reports that although the Contractor promises to complete the work — taking Butcherry at Musiri — and utilise the grant before the end of March 1894, yet the former cannot not fully rely on the assurance, & anticipates some difficulty in closing the accounts before the end of the year, even if the work is completed. Hence the surrender of Rs 2,000 from the current years grant.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Curran Lt Col. R.E.
