READ—the following papers:—

From Brigadier-General E. H. EYRE, Quartermaster-General, Madras Army, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 14th February 1894, No. 249 M.W.

Adverting to Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 8099 of 7th December 1893, I am desired to state that the Commandant, South Indian Railway Volunteer Corps, reports that he did not anticipate the corps would be required to contribute such a large sum as Rs. 1,694* this year for the armoury and magazine at Cuddalore, and consequently provision was not made for the payment.

* Vide Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 7785 of 24th November 1893.

2. In these circumstances the Commandant asks that sanction be accorded for the payment of a first instalment of Rs. 500 only this season, leaving the balance to be met from next year's capitation grant.

3. The Commander-in-Chief recommends this application for the favorable consideration of Government.
