your note of 1st Feb. 1894
No. 343. D.

Please explain what you mean by "English stores not of European manufacture". How can they be anything else

W.

The term "English Stores" includes both manufactured articles and raw material. For either of these sanction is required, but when the raw materials is worked up in India no sanction is necessary.

2. It is not possible for audit to say whether the manufactured article is open to objection, or not, for want of sanction; and it is therefore suggested that it should be distinctly shown on each voucher that it is not of European Manufacture.

The Government does not consider that a general rule as indicated by the Examiner is practicable, but observes that the Consulting Architect may possibly save himself trouble by noting on vouchers for stores which are of European manufacture, the fact that sanction has been or will be applied for.
