G.O., dated 19th March 1894, No. 193, Educational.

Read—the following paper :—

From Lieutenant-Colonel A. W. SMART, R.E., Superintending Engineer, VI Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Trichinopoly, 23rd February 1894, No. 1759 T.C.

With reference to G.O. No. 3221 W. of the 12th December 1893, on the subject of the grant of first and second class certificates to draughtsmen, I have the honour to request to be informed whether the Government Order is intended to have retrospective effect, or whether the cancelment of G.O. No. 2279 W. of the 20th August 1889, is to come into force from the date of the Government Order of 12th December last under reference.

2. In your No. 4331 C. of the 3rd October 1892, S. Nataraja Aiyar, draughtsman in this office (who passed in second class), has been declared eligible for promotion to the first class under G.Os., Nos. 1901 W. of the 16th July, and 2279 W. of 20th August 1889. I wish to know whether this man and others similarly exempted can be promoted to that class under the above sanction or whether they should obtain the required certificate before being promoted to first class.

No. 941 C.

Transferred to the Educational Department with reference to G.O., dated 5th December 1893, No. 890, Educational.

2. Under paragraph 4 of G.O., dated 1st July 1889, No. 384, Educational, a number of second-class draughtsmen serving in the Public Works Department have been declared eligible for promotion to the first class, and it is considered that the withdrawal of the Chief Engineer's power in this respect should not have retrospective effect.
