No. 203. From Major-Genl. E. H. H. COLLEN, C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Fort William, the 27th February 1894, No. 666-B.

Volunteers.

In continuation of Military Department letter No. 2480-B., dated the 31st July 1893, conveying the decision of the Secretary of State that the recognition of the rank of volunteer officers in India should follow the practice observed in the United Kingdom, viz., that their rank will be recognized when actually serving with officers of the regular forces, I am directed to say that the Government of India have decided that, in conformity with the practice in England, the rank of volunteer officers will be recognized when they attend the levees of His Excellency the Viceroy in uniform.

2. I am to request that this decision, as well as the decision conveyed in Military Department letter, No. 2480-B., dated the 31st July 1893, may be embodied in the revised edition of Army Regulations, India, Volume IX., now under preparation in your department.

No. 666-B.

Copy of the above forwarded, in continuation of Military Department No. 2480-B., dated the 31st July 1893, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department.
