26TH DECEMBER 1893, No. 1312, FINANCIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., C.S., Inspector-General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Berhampore, 4th December 1893,
No. 2050-C.

Cases have come to my notice in which Superintendents of Jails (not being medical officers) and subordinate officers employed in jails, such as jailors, have applied to the Collector of the district in which the jail is situated, without my knowledge, for a certificate that they are entitled to the compensation for exchange allowances and have in some instances obtained it.

2. I have the honour to enquire whether this procedure is in accordance with the orders of Government, and, if not, to request that instructions may be issued to the Accountant-General to disallow all claims for the allowance from jail officers not being commissioned medical officers, which have not been sanctioned either by Government or by me.

3. It appears to me that the Collector of a district has no sufficient means of adjudicating on such claims when preferred by officials of other departments, and that it is undesirable that the cost of the jails, for which I am responsible, should be raised by orders of the Collector without my having any opportunity of knowing how or why they are passed.

ORDER—dated 26th December 1893, No. 1312, Financial.

The procedure described in the first paragraph of the Inspector-General's letter is in accordance with what is laid down in the Comptroller-General's circular of the 24th August 1893, No. 829. That procedure, however, was prescribed only "in the absence of any orders of the Local Government to the contrary," and the Governor in Council now resolves to direct that no subordinate in the Jail, Police, Salt, or similar independent department, to whom the rules in Chapter XIV of the Civil Service Regulations apply, shall be admitted to the benefit of the exchange compensation allowance save on the certificate of the head of the department concerned or with the sanction of Government passed upon a report by that officer.

2. The Accountant-General will be requested to arrange to furnish to the heads of the departments specified above a list of such of their subordinates as have already been admitted to the allowance on the certificate of the Collector or other disbursing officer.
