Read the following papers:-

Ly. O. dated 6th December 1893, No 431.

Order, 8th March 1894, No 80.

The following will be substituted for paragraph 3 of Ly. O. dated 6th December 1893, No 431:-

3. Mr. Ashpitel's duties in regard to light-houses will be confined to matters connected with the construction of light-houses and the erection of lanterns and light apparatus. The Presidency Port Officer will determine the points on the coast from which lights should be shown, and the class of light apparatus to be provided, but the actual location of a light house will not be decided on till after consultation between the Presidency Port Officer and Mr. Ashpitel.
