REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Revenue No. /

Revenue No. 1892

Arzi no 224 / 18.6.92 from the Tahildar of Bhadrachalam to the special assistant agent.

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your honour's Circular no 100 and report as follows.

In this Taluk office building the room where the Taluk Magistrate holds his court is $14\frac{1}{2}$ feet broad & 12 feet long. At the time of evening the parties have to be in the verandah. The parties have been suffering much in summer from the hot winds and from the rains in the rainy season. There is not sufficient accommodation in the room for the Pleaders even. Besides this, the record room being small in itself, one of the almirahs (containing records) has been kept in this room.

For the reasons mentioned above, the extension of the said court room is absolutely essential.

If the wall between the present record room measuring $14\frac{1}{2} \times 12$ and the court room be dismantled and the whole area utilised for the court room and a spacious room measuring $14\frac{1}{2} \times 15$ be built to the east of the Taluk office building there would be accommodation for the records and there would also be space for a hall adjoining the Court room.

I have therefore submitted a rough estimate for the same and await order.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Yours faithfully

his Court and that the building he "extended towards the East and a
"spacious room built for the location
"of records"; and adds that at his recent visit to Shadrachalam he had occasion to notice the insufficient accommodation for records.

order on the subject is enclosed.
