Sir,

With reference to your No. 563 G of 9th December 1893, I have the honor to inform you that calculated on the previous 8 years expenditure on repairs, the rent of the Assistant Superintendent's Bungalow at Tirukoilur is Rs 45, (vide statement herewith) and this is the sum fixed in G.O. No. 3337 W d/5th December 1892.

2. The average of 8 years is taken as this is the period fixed in G.O. No. 1367 W dated 22nd May 1889, but the Examiner P.W. Accounts in para 6 of his office note embodied in G.O. No.

3033/23rd November 1893, has taken the average of 4 years; on this basis, the authority for which is not known, the rent works out to Rs 56 (vide statement) this rent is Rs 6 in excess of what is leviable, as an Assistant Superintendent of Police of the 1st grade draws, I believe, Rupees 500 per mensem. I have no hesitation in saying that the rent already charged viz Rupees 45 limited by 10 per cent of Salary of the incumbent, is, as house rent goes in the district, a heavy one, and I would strongly recommend that this sum be taken as the limit, the more so as it is the sum arrived at if the average of 8 years of Expenditure is taken as the basis of Calculation.

I have &c
