SIR,

With reference to the notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette gazetted Mr. J. Inglis Executive Engineer to the charge of the Tanjore Division on the departure of Mr. Haynes on furlough granted from the 1st April, I have the honor to bring to your notice that by some mistake Mr. Inglis was relieved of his duties in the Yellamanchili Sub Div. Tiragapatam Div. on the 22nd February 1894.

2. On hearing of Mr. Inglis' arrival at Ben-hampur, I at once called upon the Executive Engineer (Mr. Hancock) for an explanation as to why he had relieved Mr. Inglis without orders from me. In reply he states he is sorry for having made such a mistake & that he had not noticed in the Gazette that Mr.
Haynes' leave dated from the 1st April.

3. As it would take a week or 10 days for Mr. Inglis to relieve Mr. Haynes, it was not worthwhile sending Mr. Inglis back to Tiragapatam.

but in order not to lose his services in the interregnum, I have ordered him to take the lands of Neg Distributary of the Ruski-kulya Canal, & for which the Ex Engineer Ruski-kulya Lt. could not spare a man to take as he has 2 Upper Subordinates with fewer, & one (Mr. Fonseca) who has not yet joined the Division. I trust that my action in this matter may receive your approval.

I have the honor to be

Sir,
Your most Obedient

J. D. Wilson
