EXECUTIVE ENGINEER'S OFFICE,
GODAVARI EASTERN DIVISION.
Dowlaisheram 5 April 1895

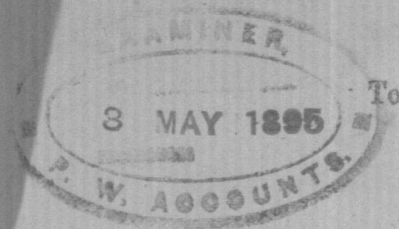

From

C. J. Essler Esq
The Executive Engineer,

Godavari Eastern Division.

To
The Superintending Engineer

First Circle.

Sir,

Enclosures

With reference to your No 691 Gt. dated 17th January 1895 on G.O. No 3246 Wt. dated 17-12-94 regarding item No 191 & 192 shown in the statement of Capital & Revenue Accounts embodied in the same, I have the honor to inform you that the Overseer in charge Rajahmundry Sub Division has in his No 496 d/15-3-95 reported regarding Item No 191 that no native nurses are residing in any of the old District Jail Buildings.

2. As regards item No 192, the Overseer reports that the constable huts are not rent free and that there are 57 huts for which a sum of Rs 14-7-0 is being realized every month by the Police Department on account of rent at different rates.

3. The Superintendent of Police Godavari has in the office No 1634 L. been requested to inform the circumstances under which rent for the huts is being realized from the constables. Police authority if any for the occupation of the huts by the Police Constables and in his No 366 d/26-3-95 that officer has stated that the huts in the occupation of the Police are shown in his office ledgers, as constructed by the D.O. W. in 1862-63 at a cost of Rs 2563-14-2 and they do not seem to have ever formed a part of the old District Jail buildings.

4. These huts do not seem to have formed a part of old District Jail & were permanently occupied by the Police Department before the Jail was abandoned and handed over to this Department

No. 1937 $\frac{2}{A}$ d/31.5.95

Sanction of Government does not appear necessary in the case of the items in question.

Item No. 191. From the accounts for March 1895 it would appear that this item "Quarters for two native nurses, District Jail, Rajahmundry" is being occupied by Hospital Assistants. Such class of officers are under P.W. Code II. Appendix VII, page 81, entitled to free quarters.

Item No. 192. "Constables huts, District Jail Rajahmundry" may be removed from the Executive Engineer's return of buildings, as, according to your office note No. 3373 C. of 24th. July 1889 promulgated as standing order No. 882 to para 1316 of the Madras P.W. Code, these huts need not be shown in the return of buildings rented and available for rent.
