will allow of rifles being at once removed and replaced by their owners, and will minimise the possibility of thieves abstracting them without disturbing the occupants of rooms or tents.

Competitors will submit their designs to a regimental Committee, who will select the three best in each class and submit them to the General Officer Commanding the District by the 1st July 1895.

General Officers Commanding will detail a board of experienced officers to consider the various designs received, and will forward their proceedings, with the best three designs and specifications in each class, (a) and (b), to the Adjutant General in India, Simla (through Lieutenant-Generals Commanding), by the 31st idem.

The first prize in each class will be withheld if none of the designs submitted for competition is judged worthy of trial.

This order is to be published in District, Station, and Regimental Orders on three different occasions, and its provisions are to be made known to all warrant and non-commissioned officers and men wishing to compete.

No. 1155 M. W., dated Simla, the 6th May 1895.

From—CAPTAIN H. MULLALY, R.E., for Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,

To—The Adjutant General in India.

In reply to your letter No. 2004 E., dated the 26th March 1895, and in supersession of Military Department letter No. 203 M.W., dated the 22nd January 1895, I am directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India sanction, as a charge against Grant 14, Miscellaneous—Contingencies, the offer of prizes aggregating in value Rs. 500 to the warrant and non-commissioned officers and men of the army and on the unattached list, for the best specifications of racks suitable for general adoption for the safety of the arms of the British troops in India.

2. I am to add that specifications should be submitted for—

- (i) making the existing arm racks secure; and
- (ii) ensuring the safety of arms on the line of march and in camps, where barrack arm racks are out of place; and that the prizes under these two heads should be as follows:—
