My attention was recently drawn to the second note at foot of the form of temporary service declaration (E. 163, copy herewith) introduced into this Presidency with the approval of the Local Government making para 3 of the declaration applicable only to temporary employees on salaries above Rs. 250 per mensem.

2. This note, I find, was based on your Circular No. 27 of 1890, communicating Government of India Resolution No. 2759 G. dated 7th October 1890; but being of opinion with reference to P.W. Code volume I, i. 109, Note, that the object of the note is to prevent the possibility of misunderstanding as to the terms on which temporary employees are employed & was of general application (and not restricted to temporary employees on receipt of salaries over Rs. 250 per mensem), I applied for the sanction of the Local Government to the omission of the note in question in a reprint of the form. I have however been told in reply that the decision to include the note in the form " was arrived at after due consideration, and it is not considered desirable to make any alteration in the form ".

3. I have the honour therefore to ask whether any further action on my part is necessary.
