Desd 11.7.95

SIR,

Referring to the Proceedings of the Madras Government No. 11272 I have the honour to inform you that the ^{4.7.95} approximate Estimate of Rs 14000 was for taking down the present building and rebuilding it. The Estimate of Rs 8650 is for a very much smaller building.

2. I have inspected the Marine Villa and consider that it may last for a considerable time longer if there is an annual expenditure on repairs equivalent to what would be allowed under the rules for the repair of the new building proposed.

3. This expenditure will not keep the building in thorough repair and no doubt at times the occupants will suffer inconvenience from leakage. This has been made clear to the Port Officer who is ready to accept these drawbacks in preference to exchanging the present Commodious bungalow for a very much smaller one.

4. It would probably be difficult to sell the
