Endorsement of the Financial Department, dated 7th August 1895, No. 1832.

ABSTRACT.—Referring to the Revenue Department, for remarks, a letter from the Chief Agents, Sun Life Assurance Company of India, Limited, dated Bombay, 27th July 1895, requesting the acceptance by Government of their guarantee and fidelity policy for the servants in its employ.

Order—dated 21st August 1895, Mis. No. 3386, Revenue.

The Company guarantees employers only against loss caused by fraud or dishonesty, and some of the obligations imposed on the employers by the agreement are such as the Government cannot with safety undertake.

2. The Government cannot accept the policies of the Company as security for their servants' conduct.
