Ven'ble and Dear Sir

We have the honour to submit the following to your consideration, and to request that ~~[illegible]~~ you will be so good as to submit our request to Government.

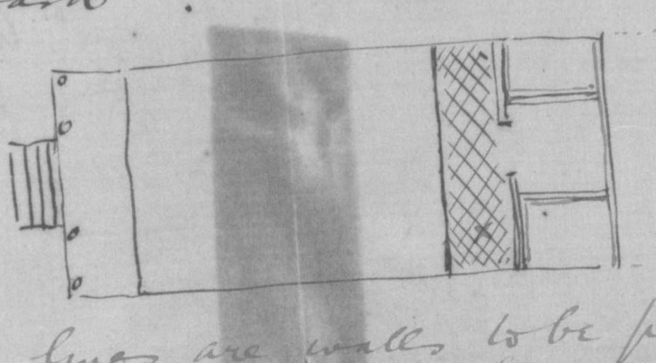

2681 W / 27-9-92

2. The Government of India (PWD) in a letter dated 6th September 1892 No 339 I.S to the Government of Madras assented to the enlargement of St Mark's, the funds to be provided by the Govt of Madras.

The Government of Madras (PWD) in its Order dated 27th Sept 1892 No 2681 W observed that no Provincial funds were at present available.

His Order was communicated to the Right Revd the Bishop on the 11th Oct. 1892 No 78.

3. The enlargement sanctioned provided for 111 extra sittings at a cost of Rs 8450 by means of demolishing the present arrangement of walls at the East End of St Marks, and re-erecting them further Eastward.

1. Red lines are walls to be pulled down.
2. dotted lines represent extension.

4. Since the enlargement was thus sanctioned, and we have been waiting the allotment of funds, we have put a new organ into the Church in the position indicated by an asterisk, at the cost of over Rs 4500; we have raised a choir platform for its reception at a cost of over Rs 200; and we have glazed the East windows.

5. If the enlargement is carried out as sanctioned, our Organ will have to be taken to pieces, removed, and re-erected; — the cost of doing this will be very great, and is not provided for in the estimate — the platform will likewise have to be demolished and re-erected further Eastward; — the cost of doing this is not provided for in the estimate; — and we cannot think that our East windows will escape damage.

6. We therefore propose that the sanctioned enlargement may be carried out in another and less costly way. The Chaplain of St Mark's in consultation with Capt Ward R E lately Ex Engr at Bangalore, has discovered that the building of two transepts, one on each side — North & South — of the Church, each to hold 150 men, will cost at a rough calculation Rs 10,000 the pair, i.e. each will cost about Rs 5000.

The plan has various advantages which we desire to point out

(1) As the provision of two parade services each Sunday morning, these transepts could be made use at a time.

(2) one transept will hold (i.e. seat) 150 men, i.e. 39 more than the other plan, and will cost Rs 3450 less.

By the time both transepts are built, there will be accommodation for an additional 300 men, i.e. for 189 more than the original plan, and the cost will be only Rs 1550 more.

(3) The existing arrangements of the East End need not to be interfered with.

(4) During the building of the transepts the services will not be interfered with.

(5) When ~~one~~ transepts ~~is~~ (i.e.) finished, it will be possible to allot seats to all the various officers of the Brigade Staff, the Madras Infantry and Cavalry Regiments, the Mysore Commission, the Residency officials, and probably ~~some~~ private residents, who being pensioned from the public service are aggrieved that they have no seats allotted to them.

(6) When both transepts are finished, it will be possible to have one parade instead of two; this will be an immense boon to the Chaplain parade services each Sunday morning, with two sermons, one service following close upon the other.

7 If this alteration of plan commends itself to the Government, we beg that orders may be issued for the working out of the detail of the cost of one transept at once in the Military Dept (in consultation with the Chaplain of St Mark's); and that as soon as the Department has in hand by saving or otherwise Rs 1000, the foundations (I.P.) ~~should~~ may be put in and the walls commenced.

Endorsement in the Ecclesiastical dept. No. 2057 dated 4th September 1895, on letter from the Venble the Archdeacon of Madras No. 2245 dated 22 Aug: 1895.

FOR ORDERS. With reference to the notes attached to G.O. No. 2681W dated 27 September 1892 and No. 513W dated 18 Feby 1892.

I am utterly at a loss to understand on what grounds the Madras Government can be asked to provide funds for the enlargement of this or any other church at Bangalore.

For the maintenance of these churches this Govt is responsible under the Provincial contract, but they are already amply large enough for Military requirements, and it is clear from the previous correspondence that the enlargement is sought in the interests of the Civil portion of the congregation, with which this Government has no concern whatever.

I think it is absurd that we should be called upon to incur this great expense out of Provincial revenues. If the Church is not large enough to contain the number of soldiers who are required to attend the services there, that is a matter for the Military authorities. If it is intended to accommodate more of the civil population at Bangalore, that is absolutely no concern of this Govt. I think we shd. tell the Archdeacon straight out that we do not intend to devote any Provincial funds towards this object.

The Venerable the Archdeacon talks of the "sanctioned" enlargement of the Church; no such sanction has ever been given, the Government of India having merely said that it had no objection to the enlargement if the Madras Government chose to undertake it.
