Endorsement of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Calcutta, the 9th January 1895, No. 110 P.

Read—Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, to the Government of Madras, No. 20 (Financial), dated 4th October 1894.

Ordered, that an extract from paragraph 1 of this despatch be communicated to the several departments of the Government of India ; to all Local Governments and Administrations ; to all heads of departments subordinate to the Finance Department ;
to the Comptroller and Auditor General ;
and to all Accountants-General * and Comptrollers for information.

EXTRACT from paragraph 1 of the despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State, to the Government of Madras, dated 4th October 1894, No. 20 (Financial).

Paragraph 1.— . . . I have to acquaint you that I have recently decided that, as the conversion of absentee allowance at the exchange of 1s. 6d. the rupee was sanctioned as a concession to officers in connection with the exchange compensation scheme, that rate should not be applied in cases in which it would render the officer liable to a deduction on account of Annuity Fund subscription, from which he would be exempt if drawing the minimum furlough allowance of £500 a year, or would otherwise operate to his disadvantage.
