ENCLOSURE.

Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 26th September 1895, No. 41, Public Works.

I have received your Excellency's Public Works letter, No. 27, dated 16th July 1895, asking for my sanction to a revised estimate, amounting to Rs. 1,27,52,508, of the cost of constructing the Madras Harbour Works.

2. The amount in question exceeds the revised estimate sanctioned by Lord Cross in 1892 by Rs. 3,69,122, and I learn from the enclosures to your letter that the main causes of this excess are a delay in the completion of the works, necessitating a heavier expenditure on staff than was anticipated, and an increase in the quantity of cement used, in order to meet the views of Sir A. M. Rendel.

3. I accord my sanction to the estimate now submitted, which, I observe, you anticipate will prove sufficient for the final completion of the harbour in accordance with the recommendations of Sir A. M. Rendel.

ORDER—No. 2817 W., dated 6th November 1895.
