P.W. 8589/95

Letter from the Dewan of Travancore ~~and Cochin~~, dated 2nd October 1895. to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin.

I have the honour to — inform you that the present Lunatic — Asylum being in the centre of the Town and on the side of a much frequented road, it is proposed to construct a new block of buildings for the purpose on a suitable site a little removed from the Town. His Highness' Government are anxious that the new buildings should be of the latest and most approved design adopted in British India, I shall therefore feel obliged by your kindly obtaining and sending me at your early convenience plans of one or two of the best and most recently built asylums.
