COPY of a communication from the Rev Arthur A Sharp Chaplain to the Consulting Architect to Government, No. _____ dated 23 October 1895.

With reference to your letter No 2832 of 21st October 1895, I have the honor to state that the repairs referred to were carried out before I was in charge of this Chaplaincy, apparently under some misapprehension. The drain upon our church funds is so great, and it is so difficult to keep the balance on the right side, that I am not prepared to meet the amount objected to.
