To. J. W. Hay Ellis Esqre.
Genl. Supt. P.W. Workshops, Madras.

Sir, We have the honour to acknowledge your communication dated the 22nd Instant and are pleased to note that the Government of India is desirous of encouraging Local Industries and the development of Technical education. As hitherto these favours have not been thought upon, by the Govt. of India, and as we have not had any necessity to have any expensive plant as Testing Machinery, and in the event of the Govt. of India showing such favours we will be glad to provide with all the necessary plant to carry on, any particular or general work.

We have been carrying on our Engineering Works for the past 17 years and supported entirely by the local public. Our works chiefly being Turning, Planing, Shaping, Steam forging, Punching & Shearing, and Founding with all the necessary plants and tools to enable us to manufacture from Raw Materials such as Pig, wrought iron & other metals. We are glad to mention for your information that the encouragement we have had from the public and the Native States has been of such a nature that we are obliged to extend our works which is being done and additional plant is being secured.

As the status of the Engineering firms which you are registering will not be of any uniform standard, you will be the best adviser in the matter to suggest the kind of work we will be able to do and thus encourage us to greater development. It must be admitted that in a Factory like ours that Technical education is practically and profitably imparted to the student and any encouragement the Govt. of India is pleased to favour us with, will be indirectly contributing to the development of Technical education amongst the subjects of Her Imperial Majesty.

We have &c

Signed - D. Raju and Co.

Informing that the only the list is Messrs D. Raju H.C.

The testing plant is a matter of great importance; for all girders must be tested by suppliers before they leave their hands. I think that the selection of firms named in future be confined to those who do possess testing plant -

For orders.

The Madras firms already selected are Messrs Massey & Co
" Oates & Co
" Bhonsale & Co

The S.E. has proposed the addition of
Messrs D. Raju & Co.

Supra of Indian
Resolution recorded under No.
984 W of 26.4.95 in accordance with which the present recommendation is made.
Local firms are requested to bring to notice the names of any other firms which they consider to be qualified,
"both from their position as Engineering firms of recognized standing, and also from their possessing the necessary testing plant."

It is observed that Messrs Raju & Co. do not possess any testing plant, though it is believed that the European firms also have none. They were without the plant when their hands were sent up in 1892.
